

CUSTOM YACHT INTERIORS REFIT & NEW CONSTRUCTION

Sylvie Laurens Interiors is a yacht interior design firm specializing in refit and new construction. Sylvie's interiors are fully custom. Functional as they are comfortable, trendy as they are elegant, simple as they are refined, peaceful as they are distinctive; tailored to meet the client's lifestyle.

Her design sensibility has been shaped not only by her French/European heritage, but also by her extensive past experience in Hospitality and Residential interior designs. Sylvie has had comprehensive studies in many schools of interior design, including the prestigious l'ASAG in Paris, France as well as the International Art Institute of Fort Lauderdale where she has received a Bachelor's degree. Born and raised in France, in 1999 she established Sylvie Laurens Interiors L.L.C. located in Boca Raton, Florida near one of the world's largest yachting industries; Fort Lauderdale. Sylvie is an allied member of the American Society of Interior Design (ASID), the International Superyacht Society (ISS) and the Marine Industries Association (MIASF).

Sylvie Laurens Interiors has the expertise to create diverse styles. Their commissioned designs have been for a wide variety of Hargrave's new constructions as well as Feadship, Viking and Azimut refits among others.
